San Diego, 92110

A Staged Reading by WRITE OUT LOUD featuring

Veronica Murphy as Mary Todd Lincoln

Linda Libby as Myra Bradwell (first female attorney in the U.S.)

Directed by Kim Strassburger

In 1875, Mary Todd Lincoln's progressive friend, Myra Bradwell, tries to free Mary from an insane asylum by exposing injustices imposed by her son and the courts. But Myra's motives and Mary's sanity are both up for debate as they grapple with their pasts and their perceptions of freedom and womanhood.
